EXPRESSION OF INTEREST (EOI)

Provision of Transportation Services (Land and Water) for 2026

The Environmental Protection Agency invites reputable and experienced transportation service providers to submit Expressions of Interest (EOI) for the provision of reliable transportation services during the period January 1, 2026 to December 31, 2026. This initiative aligns with the Agency's commitment to ensuring safe, efficient and professional transportation support for staff and official duties across all operational locations.

1. Scope of Services Required

The selected transportation service provider(s) will be required to deliver reliable and professional land and water transportation services, which include, but are not limited to:

- On-demand and pre-scheduled pickups for staff and official assignments
- Airport transfers
- Standby transportation services, as required
- Provision of land transportation services, including taxis/cars, minibuses, and large buses
- Provision of boat transportation services to support operations within Demerara, Essequibo, Berbice and Marine operational areas
- Services available 24 hours per day, including weekends and public holidays, subject to operational requirements

Service providers may submit EOIs for one or more categories of service.

2. Minimum Eligibility Criteria

Interested transportation service providers must demonstrate:

- Valid Business Registration and current NIS and GRA Compliance
- A fleet of well-maintained, fully insured vehicles and/or boats appropriate to the services offered
- Valid commercial licences, fitness certificates, insurance and permits

- Proven track record of providing transportation services to government agencies or large organisations
- Drivers and boat operators trained in customer service and safety protocols
- Ability to provide official invoices and receipts

3. Submission Requirements

All EOIs must include:

- Company Profile
- Services Offered
- Fleet Information
- Driver/Operator Credentials
- Relevant Experience
- Compliance Documents
